Elderly and Disabled Tax Relief Assistance Available

~City to offer assistance with tax relief applications at various locations~

Richmond, VA - Beginning Tuesday, January 10, 2012, City staff will be available at various locations to offer assistance to elderly and disabled residents who may qualify or need to re-certify for real estate tax relief. "We are bringing City staff to the community to make it easier for residents to complete the application process and get the assistance they need," said Interim Director of Finance Wayne Lassiter.

Staff from the City's Department of Finance will be available to provide personal assistance with the real estate tax relief application process. No appointment is necessary. The locations and days are:

- City Hall – Room 103
Every Tuesday and Thursday from January 10 through March 29 from 8 a.m. to Noon
- Southside Community Services Center – 4100 Hull Street Road
The following Wednesdays from 9 a.m. to Noon
